

Challenge Two: A Message to Your Colleagues

Play Solo, Engage Your Family or Colleagues

Here's the Challenge:

Share a personalized, motivational and/or encouraging message with your colleagues located across various states. Staying inspired and motivated while in isolation can be a challenge, show your encouragement.

- Write a short message to your colleagues
- Choose how you will display your message
- Take a photo of your message
- Bonus points for creativity on your message display (i.e. poster, colorful, text, written)
- Bonus points for taking a picture of yourself and/or your team holding up your message
- Participation is optional
- This activity is not work time
- Have fun, take pics and share your pics
- This challenge is worth 20 points

Submit your message via a photo to benefits@hirecounsel.com

All photos will be added to a short video clip to share with our entire team.

Please submit your photo by Monday, May 4th, 2020.

Earn points and be entered for a drawing to win prizes for challenges you complete.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

What is the social engagement program about?

We're looking to incorporate fun elements and engage our entire talented team members across all our locations. The social engagement segments include challenges that can be completed in a remote environment while showing off your willingness to join the fun. It is an opportunity to incorporate fun into our work week. Earn points and be entered for a drawing to win prizes for any challenge you complete.

Does it follow social distancing protocols?

Absolutely! You can play solo; with people you see daily or you can opt for a remote team. Remote teams can join virtually to play together as one team!

Will I get to view my colleagues' submittals to this challenge?

Yes. We will share all encouraging messages & photos with all employees.

Who do I contact if I have questions?

If you have any questions regarding this challenge or the social engagement communications, please reply to this email.

Optimism, Health & Gratitude

Benefits Team

Confidentiality Notice: This e-mail transmission may contain confidential or legally privileged information that is intended only for the individual or entity named in the e-mail address and any unauthorized disclosure, copying, distribution, or reliance upon the contents is strictly prohibited.