

HC2 DATA PRIVACY FRAMEWORK

HC2, Inc. d/b/a Hire Counsel (“Hire Counsel”) may collect Human Resources and Non-Human Resources Personal Data in the EU and Switzerland and will adhere to the Data Privacy Framework Principles when transferring such data to the United States.

1. DATA PRIVACY FRAMEWORK COMPLIANCE

Hire Counsel complies with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (Swiss-U.S. DPF) as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Hire Counsel has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (EU-U.S. DPF Principles) with regard to the processing of personal data received from the European Union in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF. Hire Counsel has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles) with regard to the processing of personal data received from Switzerland in reliance on the Swiss-U.S. DPF. If there is any conflict between the terms in this privacy policy and the EU-U.S. DPF Principles and/or the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles, the Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Data Privacy Framework (DPF) program, and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/>.

With respect to personal data received or transferred pursuant to the DPF Framework, Hire Counsel is subject to the regulatory and enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission.

Pursuant to the DPF, EU and Swiss individuals have the right to obtain our confirmation of whether we maintain personal information relating to you in the United States. Upon request, we will provide you with access to the personal information that we hold about you. You also may correct, amend, or delete the personal information we hold about you. An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, or delete inaccurate data transferred to the United States under DPF, should direct their query to hcmlegal@hirecounsel.com. If requested to remove data, we will respond within a reasonable timeframe.

4. PERMITTED DISCLOSURES

We will provide an individual opt-out choice, or opt-in for sensitive data, before we share your data with third parties other than our agents, or before we use it for a purpose other than which it was originally collected or subsequently authorized. To request to limit the use and disclosure of your personal information, please submit a written request to hcmclegal@hirecounsel.com.

Hire Counsel's accountability for personal data that it receives in the United States under the DPF and subsequently transfers to a third party is described in the DPF Principles. In particular, Hire Counsel remains responsible and liable under the DPF Principles if third-party agents that it engages to process the personal data on its behalf do so in a manner inconsistent with the Principles, unless Hire Counsel proves that it is not responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.

Hire Counsel may disclose your personal information under the following circumstances:

- You authorize Hire Counsel to disclose the information
- In response to a lawful request by public authorities including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements
- In response to a lawful subpoena, court order, or other applicable law or legal process
- When Hire Counsel has a good faith belief that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or respond to fraud or to protect the property and safety of Hire Counsel, its customers, candidates or the public
- If Hire Counsel merges with or is acquired by another company or if all or a substantial portion of its assets are acquired by another company. In those cases, your information will likely be one of the assets that is transferred.

5. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In compliance with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (Swiss-U.S. DPF), [INSERT your organization name] commits to resolve complaints about our collection or use of your personal information transferred to the U.S. pursuant to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF. EU and Swiss individuals with inquiries or complaints should first contact Hire Counsel by email at Stephanos Zannikos | szannikos@hirecounsel.com | (646) 356-0528.

Hire Counsel has further committed to refer unresolved DPF Principles-related complaints to an independent dispute resolution mechanism, BBB NATIONAL PROGRAMS. If you do not receive timely acknowledgment of your complaint, or if your complaint is not satisfactorily addressed, please visit www.bbbprograms.org/dpf-complaints for more information and to file a complaint. This service is provided free of charge to you.

If your DPF complaint cannot be resolved through the above channels, under certain conditions, you may invoke binding arbitration for some residual claims not resolved by other redress mechanisms. See <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/s/article/ANNEX-I-introduction-dpf>

6. EU AND SWISS COOPERATION FOR HUMAN RESOURCES INFORMATION

If you are a Hire Counsel employee in the EU or Switzerland with a complaint involving your Human Resources Information transferred to the United States from the EU or Switzerland, and Hire Counsel does not address it satisfactorily, Hire Counsel has further committed to cooperate with the panel established by the EU data protection authorities or the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner, as applicable, and will comply with the advice given by such authorities with regard to human resource data. To pursue an unresolved human resources complaint, you should contact the state or national data protection or labor authority in the appropriate jurisdiction. Contact details for the EU data protection authorities can be found at https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members_en. Complaints related to Human Resources Information should not be addressed to the BBB National Programs Data Privacy Framework Services.
